

FELICITATE

Meaning: To felicitate means to congratulate or express good wishes to someone on a special occasion or achievement.

1. I would like to felicitate you on your remarkable achievement.
2. The committee decided to felicitate the volunteers for their unwavering dedication.
3. It is customary to felicitate graduates during the commencement ceremony.
4. She received a heartfelt message from her friends to felicitate her new job.
5. We gathered to felicitate the award winners and celebrate their success.
6. We should all take a moment to felicitate her for winning the prestigious award.
7. The community gathered to felicitate the local heroes who saved lives during the disaster.
8. It is customary to felicitate graduates after their commencement ceremony.
9. He took the opportunity to felicitate his colleague on the successful completion of the project.
10. Many people came to felicitate the couple on their milestone anniversary celebration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/felicitate>