

FELLINIC

Meaning: FELLINIC: characterized by a deep, melancholic, and emotionally evocative quality, reminiscent of the artistic style of filmmaker Federico Fellini.

1. The artist's style was often described as fellinic, capturing the essence of melancholy in every brushstroke.
2. Her poetry had a fellinic quality, evoking deep emotions and a sense of longing.
3. The film's fellinic atmosphere left the audience pondering the complexities of human relationships.
4. In the book, the protagonist's journey was portrayed with a fellinic touch, reflecting the struggles of the human condition.
5. The fellinic undertones in his music resonated with listeners, drawing them into a reflective state.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fellinic>