

FELLOWSHIP

Meaning: Fellowship is a grant or scholarship awarded to support advanced study or research, often providing financial assistance and opportunities for academic development.

1. The university offers a prestigious fellowship for graduate students pursuing research in the sciences.
2. After years of hard work, she was awarded a fellowship that allowed her to travel and study abroad.
3. The fellowship among the team members was evident as they collaborated seamlessly on the project.
4. He cherished the sense of fellowship created during their annual summer camp retreats.
5. Many artists benefit from a fellowship that provides funding and resources for their creative projects.
6. The university offers a prestigious fellowship to support graduate students in their research.
7. Her fellowship with the community helped her understand the challenges faced by local residents.
8. They formed a fellowship of like-minded individuals dedicated to environmental conservation.
9. After years of hard work, he was awarded a fellowship that allowed him to pursue his dream project.
10. The fellowship between the two writers was evident in their collaborative works.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fellowship>