

FEMININE

Meaning: Feminine: relating to or characteristic of women, often associated with qualities traditionally attributed to women, such as delicacy, empathy, and softness.

1. The dress she chose for the party was beautifully feminine, with delicate lace and soft pastel colors.
2. Her writing style has a distinctly feminine touch, filled with empathy and emotional depth.
3. The actress embraced her feminine side, showcasing her strength while maintaining grace in every role she played.
4. In many cultures, the concept of feminine beauty is celebrated through various artistic expressions and traditions.
5. They organized a workshop focused on empowering women to embrace their feminine qualities and assert their identities.
6. The dress she chose for the event was beautifully feminine, with lace and soft pastel colors.
7. Her artwork often explores themes of femininity and the strength found in vulnerability.
8. The perfume had a distinctly feminine scent, reminiscent of blooming roses and fresh rain.
9. In literature, the author frequently examines feminine perspectives and the complexities of women's lives.
10. The film portrayed a range of feminine experiences, from joy to struggle, in a realistic and relatable manner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feminine>