

FENESTRATION

Meaning: Fenestration refers to the arrangement, design, and placement of windows and openings in a building to enhance natural light and energy efficiency.

1. The architect emphasized the importance of fenestration in maximizing natural light within the building.
2. In modern design, fenestration can greatly influence the energy efficiency of a structure.
3. The historical significance of fenestration in Gothic cathedrals cannot be overstated, as it allowed for stunning stained glass displays.
4. Innovative fenestration techniques have emerged, allowing for better ventilation and temperature control in residential homes.
5. During the renovation, the team focused on enhancing the fenestration to create a more open and inviting atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fenestration>