

FERAL

Meaning: Feral refers to animals that have reverted to a wild state, especially after being domesticated, and are living in a natural, untamed environment.

1. The feral cats roamed the streets at night, their eyes gleaming in the darkness.
2. After years of abandonment, the once domesticated dog reverted to its feral instincts.
3. In the remote forest, a feral population of pigs thrived, causing concern among local farmers.
4. The documentary explored the lives of feral children raised outside of human society.
5. She found beauty in the wild, feral landscape that seemed untouched by civilization.
6. The feral cats roamed the abandoned streets, surviving on scraps and instinct.
7. As the forest reclaimed the old farmhouse, feral plants blossomed wildly in every corner.
8. His feral instincts kicked in when he found himself lost in the wilderness.
9. The documentary showcased the feral behavior of wolves in their natural habitat.
10. After years of neglect, the garden was overrun with feral vines and untamed foliage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feral>