

FERRO

Meaning: Ferro refers to a finish or compound that contains iron, often used to describe a metallic appearance or specific oxidation state in chemistry.

1. The artist used a ferro finish to give the sculpture a striking metallic sheen.
2. In chemistry, ferro compounds often indicate the presence of iron in a lower oxidation state.
3. The construction team relied on ferro cement for its strength and durability in harsh weather conditions.
4. Her passion for ferrofluid art led her to create mesmerizing installations that captivated visitors.
5. The old railway tracks were made of ferro, a testament to the industrial era of the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ferro>