

FERRUGINEOUS

Meaning: Ferruginous: containing or characteristic of iron, often resulting in a reddish-brown color.

1. The ferruginous landscape was marked by the deep red hues of the iron-rich soil.
2. As the sun set, the ferruginous rocks glowed under the warm light, creating a stunning visual spectacle.
3. Birdwatchers were excited to spot the ferruginous hawk soaring gracefully above the fields.
4. The artist chose a ferruginous palette to evoke the earthy tones of the autumn season.
5. In the old mine, they discovered ferruginous deposits that hinted at the area's geological history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ferrugineous>