

FERRUGINOUS

Meaning: Ferruginous: containing or resembling iron, often characterized by a reddish color.

1. The ferruginous soil in the region is rich in iron, giving it a distinctive reddish hue.
2. Birdwatchers often seek out the ferruginous hawk for its striking plumage and unique hunting style.
3. The old iron bridge had a ferruginous patina that told stories of its long history.
4. Ferruginous minerals can be found in many geological formations, often indicating the presence of ancient water sources.
5. In the art exhibit, the ferruginous tones of the paintings created a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ferruginous>