

FESTIVAL

Meaning: A festival is a planned series of events or activities, often involving entertainment, cultural displays, or celebrations, typically held at a specific time and location.

1. The annual music festival attracted thousands of fans from around the world.
2. Families gathered in the park to celebrate the colorful arts festival.
3. At the film festival, many independent filmmakers showcased their unique stories.
4. The harvest festival was a vibrant celebration of local culture and community.
5. She marked her calendar for the upcoming food festival, eager to try new cuisines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/festival>