

FETIDNESS

Meaning: Fetidness refers to the state of being extremely foul-smelling or having a strong, unpleasant odor.

1. The fetidness of the stagnant water made it clear that no life could thrive there.
2. After days without cleaning, the kitchen was filled with an unbearable fetidness that drove everyone away.
3. Despite the beauty of the forest, the fetidness of decaying leaves was a pungent reminder of nature's cycle.
4. The fetidness emanating from the abandoned building was a warning to any who dared to approach.
5. As the summer heat intensified, the fetidness of the landfill became even more pronounced, attracting swarms of flies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fetidness>