

FEUDALISM

Meaning: Feudalism is a social and economic system prevalent in medieval Europe, where land was held in exchange for service, particularly military support, creating a hierarchical structure of obligations and relationships.

1. Feudalism was a dominant social system in medieval Europe, characterized by the exchange of land for military service.
2. The decline of feudalism marked the transition to more centralized forms of governance in many countries.
3. Historians often debate the factors that led to the rise and fall of feudalism across different regions.
4. In a feudal system, lords granted land to vassals, who in return owed loyalty and service.
5. The remnants of feudalism can still be seen in certain cultural traditions and social hierarchies today.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feudalism>