

FEUILLETON

Meaning: Feuilleton: a section of a newspaper or magazine that publishes literary critiques, serialized fiction, and commentary on cultural or social issues.

1. The feuilleton section of the newspaper featured a mix of literary critiques and serialized fiction.
2. Many readers enjoyed the feuilleton for its engaging storytelling and insightful commentary on contemporary issues.
3. The author published a captivating feuilleton that explored the complexities of modern relationships.
4. In France, the feuilleton has a long tradition of blending journalism with artistic expression.
5. Her latest novel was partly inspired by the feuilleton style, weaving together short narratives that reflect society's quirks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feuilleton>