

FEVERISH

Meaning: Feverish: characterized by intense activity or emotion, often accompanied by physical symptoms like fever or restlessness.

1. The child lay feverish in bed, alternating between chills and sweats.
2. After hours of studying, she felt a feverish excitement about her upcoming presentation.
3. His feverish pace at work left little time for rest or relaxation.
4. The atmosphere in the room was feverish, charged with anticipation for the concert to begin.
5. She scribbled feverish notes as ideas flooded her mind during the creative brainstorming session.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feverish>