

FIB

Meaning: A fib is a small or trivial lie, often told to avoid hurting someone's feelings or to evade trouble.

1. The little boy told a fib when he said he finished his homework.
2. She realized that her friend had told a fib about where she had been last night.
3. It's better to tell the truth than to cover it up with a fib.
4. His fib about being sick caught up with him when he was spotted at the game.
5. The politician was caught in a fib about his campaign promises.
6. He told a fib about how he spent his weekend.
7. The child was caught trying to cover up his fib with an elaborate story.
8. She felt guilty for telling a small fib to avoid hurting her friend's feelings.
9. Despite his fib, she could sense that something was off in his explanation.
10. It turned out that the little fib had snowballed into a much bigger problem.
11. She told a fib about her age to avoid revealing her true identity.
12. It's hard to believe that a small fib could lead to such a big misunderstanding.
13. When caught in a fib, he realized honesty was the best policy going forward.
14. The children were quick to fib when asked who broke the vase.
15. Even a little fib can damage trust in a relationship over time.