

FIBRILLOUS

Meaning: FIBRILLOUS: characterized by or composed of fine, thread-like fibers.

1. The histological analysis revealed that the tumor was characterized by fibrillous tissue, complicating the diagnosis.
2. In the study of muscle fibers, researchers noted the presence of fibrillous structures that contributed to their elasticity.
3. The fibrillous material found in the ancient artifact suggested it had been woven from plant fibers.
4. During the examination, the scientist discovered a fibrillous network that played a crucial role in the organism's structural integrity.
5. The artist's use of fibrillous textures added depth and dimension to the painting, captivating viewers with its intricate details.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibrillous>