FIBRINATION

Meaning: Fibrination is the process of forming fibrin, a protein that helps in the clotting of blood and is essential for wound healing.

1. Fibrination plays a crucial role in the clotting process of blood.
2. Researchers are studying the fibrination process to understand its implications for wound healing.
3. The abnormal fibrination of proteins can lead to serious health issues, including thrombosis.
4. In the laboratory, scientists monitor the fibrination of various substances to assess their biocompatibility.
5. Fibrination is often influenced by factors such as temperature and pH in biological systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibrination