

FIBRINE

Meaning: Fibrine is a fibrous protein involved in the coagulation of blood, forming a mesh that aids in the formation of blood clots.

1. Fibrine plays a crucial role in the clotting process of blood.
2. The laboratory analysis showed elevated levels of fibrine in the patient's sample.
3. During wound healing, fibrine acts as a temporary matrix for new tissue formation.
4. Researchers are studying the properties of fibrine to improve surgical outcomes.
5. In the presence of certain enzymes, fibrine can be broken down into smaller peptides.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibrine>