

FIBRINOGEN

Meaning: Fibrinogen is a soluble plasma protein that is converted into fibrin during the blood clotting process, playing a vital role in hemostasis.

1. Fibrinogen is a crucial protein in the blood clotting process.
2. During surgery, monitoring fibrinogen levels can help prevent excessive bleeding.
3. Low fibrinogen levels may indicate a risk of hemorrhage in patients.
4. The liver produces fibrinogen, which is essential for wound healing.
5. Fibrinogen can also play a role in inflammation and immune response.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibrinogen>