

FIBRINOUS

Meaning: FIBRINOUS: relating to or resembling fibrin, characterized by a fibrous texture or composition, often associated with the healing process in tissues.

1. The doctor noted that the tissue displayed a fibrinous texture, indicating a healing process.
2. A fibrinous clot formed at the site of the injury, helping to prevent further bleeding.
3. Under the microscope, the pathologist observed fibrinous material interspersed among the cells.
4. The patient's symptoms suggested the presence of fibrinous pericarditis, which required immediate attention.
5. In the laboratory, researchers studied the properties of fibrinous deposits in various conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibrinous>