

FIBSTER

Meaning: Fibster: a person who tells trivial or minor lies, often in an exaggerated or entertaining manner.

1. The fibster's tales were so outrageous that nobody could believe a word he said.
2. Everyone knew he was a fibster, but his stories were often entertaining nonetheless.
3. She caught him in a lie again, proving once more that he was a notorious fibster.
4. Despite his charm, the community grew wary of the fibster's exaggerated claims.
5. Even his closest friends began to distance themselves from the habitual fibster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fibster>