FICTION

Meaning: Fiction is a literary genre that involves imaginative storytelling, often creating narratives that are not based on real events or facts.

1. Fiction allows readers to escape into worlds of imagination and creativity.
2. The novel blends elements of history and fiction in a captivating narrative.
3. She preferred writing fiction over non-fiction because it offered more freedom to explore ideas.
4. His latest work of fiction explores the complexities of human relationships in modern society.
5. While based on real events, the story is ultimately a work of fiction that reflects personal experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fiction