

FICTIONAL

Meaning: Fictional refers to something that is invented or created from the imagination, rather than based on real events or characters.

1. The novel features a rich tapestry of fictional characters that resonate with readers.
2. In the world of fictional storytelling, anything is possible, limited only by the imagination.
3. She preferred reading fictional tales, as they provided an escape from reality.
4. The movie was based on a fictional account of historical events, blending fact and imagination.
5. His ability to create fictional universes made him a beloved author among fantasy fans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fictional>