

FICTITIOUS

Meaning: FICTITIOUS: not real or true; invented or fabricated, often for the purpose of deception or storytelling.

1. The author created a fictitious world that captivated readers with its intricate details.
2. In the investigation, the detectives uncovered a network of fictitious companies used for money laundering.
3. Her fictitious persona allowed her to explore her creativity without the constraints of reality.
4. The documentary exposed the fictitious claims made by the company to attract unsuspecting investors.
5. He often used fictitious names when signing up for online services to protect his privacy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fictitious>