

FIDDLE-FADDLE

Meaning: FIDDLE-FADDLE refers to pointless or trivial fussing or activity, often involving excessive attention to minor details.

1. His constant fiddle-faddle about minor details was starting to annoy the team.
2. Rather than making a decision, she spent the afternoon in fiddle-faddle over trivial matters.
3. The meeting was filled with so much fiddle-faddle that we barely addressed the main issues.
4. I don't have time for any more fiddle-faddle; let's get to the point.
5. Her fiddle-faddle during the presentation made it difficult for anyone to follow along.
6. The meeting was filled with fiddle-faddle, distracting us from the important issues at hand.
7. She dismissed his complaints as mere fiddle-faddle, not worth her time or attention.
8. After hours of fiddle-faddle, we finally arrived at a decision that pleased everyone.
9. It was frustrating to listen to the fiddle-faddle instead of a straightforward answer.
10. Despite the fiddle-faddle surrounding the topic, she remained focused on her goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fiddle-faddle>