

FIDDLE

Meaning: FIDDLE (verb): to play with or manipulate something in a casual or aimless manner.

1. He learned to fiddle with the strings of his violin until he could play beautifully.
2. The children began to fiddle with the puzzle pieces, trying to fit them together.
3. She had a knack for making things work by fiddling with the settings until they were just right.
4. As he sat by the campfire, he took out his fiddle and played a lively tune.
5. The mechanic had to fiddle with the engine to diagnose the problem properly.
6. She skillfully played the fiddle at the community concert.
7. The children gathered around to watch the old man fiddle with his intricate model train set.
8. During the festival, a talented musician entertained the crowd with a lively fiddle performance.
9. He always seemed to fiddle with his pen when he was deep in thought.
10. When she got nervous, she would fiddle with the hem of her shirt to calm herself down.
11. She learned to fiddle with the strings as a child, captivated by the music it created.
12. During the summer festival, the old man played his fiddle under the stars, enchanting everyone around him.
13. He tried to fiddle with the complicated machine, but it still refused to work properly.
14. The children watched in awe as the performer skillfully fiddled with the notes, bringing the melody to life.
15. In her free time, she would often fiddle with her camera, experimenting with new angles and lighting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fiddle>