

FIDGET

Meaning: To fidget means to make small movements, often due to nervousness or restlessness, typically involving hands or feet.

1. She tends to fidget whenever she's nervous during presentations.
2. The child couldn't sit still and began to fidget with his toy instead.
3. As the lecture dragged on, I noticed my classmates start to fidget in their seats.
4. He tried to focus on the meeting, but his mind began to fidget with distracting thoughts.
5. Fidgeting with a pen helped her think through the complex problem at hand.
6. She couldn't help but fidget in her seat during the long presentation.
7. The child started to fidget with his toy while waiting for his turn.
8. As the interview progressed, he began to fidget with his tie, betraying his nerves.
9. Fidgeting with a pen can sometimes help people think more clearly.
10. Instead of focusing, she found herself fidgeting with the hem of her shirt.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fidget>