

FIG-SHELL

Meaning: Fig-shell refers to a type of shell, often from a mollusk, that is characterized by its distinctive fig-like shape and is used in art or found in coastal environments.

1. The artist used fig-shell to create intricate designs on the ceramic surface.
2. While exploring the shoreline, we found a beautiful fig-shell nestled among the rocks.
3. The delicate sheen of the fig-shell caught the sunlight, creating a mesmerizing effect.
4. In her collection of natural artifacts, the fig-shell stood out as one of the most unique pieces.
5. The fig-shell's smooth texture made it a popular choice for jewelry makers looking for natural materials.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fig-shell>