

FIGMENT

Meaning: Figment: a thing that is imagined or fabricated, rather than real or tangible.

1. The monster was merely a figment of his imagination, born from his childhood fears.
2. She realized that her memories of the event were just a figment, distorted by time and emotion.
3. His elaborate stories were often dismissed as figments, entertaining yet far from the truth.
4. In her dreams, the figment of a lost love often visited, leaving her with bittersweet feelings.
5. The artist's work was inspired by a figment of fantasy, blurring the lines between reality and imagination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/figment>