

FIGULINE

Meaning: Figuline refers to a type of pottery or ceramics that is shaped and often decorated, typically associated with artistic craftsmanship and intricate designs.

1. The ancient pottery was beautifully crafted, showcasing the artistry of figuline techniques.
2. In the museum, the figuline artifacts drew a crowd fascinated by their intricate designs.
3. The workshop specialized in figuline production, attracting artisans from across the region.
4. Her collection of figuline pieces included both functional items and decorative sculptures.
5. At the exhibit, the curator explained the historical significance of figuline in various cultures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/figuline>