FILACER

Meaning: A filacer is a skilled artisan or craftsman who specializes in the careful creation and embellishment of intricate designs on manuscripts or important documents.

1. The filacer meticulously crafted the intricate design on the ancient manuscript.
2. In historical contexts, a filacer was often responsible for the meticulous handling of important documents.
3. As a filacer, she was skilled in the delicate art of parchment preservation.
4. The role of a filacer was crucial in ensuring the authenticity of official letters in medieval times.
5. With her background as a filacer, she was able to restore the fragile texts with precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filacer