

FILCH

Meaning: To filch means to steal something, typically in a sneaky or stealthy manner.

1. She tried to filch a few extra cookies from the jar when no one was looking.
2. The clever thief managed to filch the wallet right out of the unsuspecting man's pocket.
3. He was caught attempting to filch supplies from the school's art room.
4. It's disappointing to see someone so talented resort to filching ideas from others.
5. They devised a plan to filch the secret recipe from the rival bakery.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filch>