

FILCHER

Meaning: Filcher: a person who steals or snatches something, often in a sly or sneaky manner.

1. The filcher was caught trying to steal a wallet from the unsuspecting tourist.
2. She had a reputation as a clever filcher, always evading capture with her quick reflexes.
3. During the investigation, they discovered that the filcher had been operating in the area for months.
4. His skills as a filcher made him infamous among local shop owners.
5. The authorities set up a sting operation to catch the notorious filcher in action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filcher>