

FILICIFORM

Meaning: Filiciform refers to a shape or structure resembling that of a fern, typically characterized by long, slender, and feathery leaves.

1. The filiciform leaves of the fern swayed gently in the breeze.
2. In the botanical garden, the filiciform structure of the plant caught the attention of many visitors.
3. The artist chose a filiciform design for the sculpture, inspired by the elegance of ferns.
4. As I wandered through the forest, I marveled at the filiciform shapes that the light created among the foliage.
5. His botanical illustrations beautifully captured the intricate details of filiciform ferns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filiciform>