

FILIFORM

Meaning: Filiform refers to a slender, thread-like shape or structure, often used to describe certain types of antennae or plant roots.

1. The filiform antennae of the moth were incredibly sensitive to environmental changes.
2. In the laboratory, the researchers observed the filiform structures of the plant roots under a microscope.
3. A filiform worm was discovered in the soil sample, highlighting the biodiversity of the ecosystem.
4. The artist used a filiform brush to create delicate lines in the intricate painting.
5. Some species of fish exhibit filiform bodies that allow them to maneuver easily in tight spaces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filiform>