

FILLING

Meaning: FILLING (noun): a substance used to fill something, often referring to a mixture or ingredient placed inside food, or the act of making something full.

1. The pie was delicious, especially with its rich, apple filling.
2. She spent the afternoon filling the garden with colorful flowers.
3. After the meeting, I found myself filling out several forms for the new project.
4. The dentist recommended a filling to repair the cavity in my tooth.
5. He was filling his notebook with sketches of the beautiful landscapes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/filling>