

FIN

Meaning: "Fin" is a term used to indicate the end or conclusion, particularly in presentations or films.

1. She raised her hand to signal the end of the presentation with a confident "fin."
 2. The movie concluded with a dramatic scene, and the screen faded to black with the word "fin."
 3. As the fish swam gracefully through the water, its fin glimmered in the sunlight.
 4. After a long day of diving, I finally spotted a manta ray gliding effortlessly with its large fin.
 5. The artist used bold strokes to depict the fin of the shark in her latest painting.
 6. The swimmer performed a graceful turn and propelled herself forward with a powerful kick from her fins.
 7. After years of hard work, he finally completed his novel, and he felt a deep sense of satisfaction as he typed "Fin" at the end.
 8. The fish darted through the coral reef, its colorful fins shimmering in the sunlight.
 9. In ballet, the dancers often emphasize the elegance of their movements, much like how a fish moves gracefully with its fins.
 10. As the curtain fell, the audience erupted in applause, signaling that the show had come to a triumphant fin.
 11. The film concluded with a simple but powerful "FIN" displayed on the screen.
 12. As the swimmer touched the wall, she raised her arms in triumph, knowing she had reached the fin of the race.
 13. In the world of finance, understanding the term "fin" can be crucial for managing investments effectively.
 14. The story was beautifully written, but the ending felt abrupt, leaving readers wondering if the "FIN" was truly the end.
 15. After years of searching, he finally found the perfect fin for his surfboard, enhancing his performance in the waves.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fin>