

FINANCIAL

Meaning: Financial: relating to money management, transactions, or the economic status of individuals or organizations.

1. The company's financial report indicated a significant increase in revenue this quarter.
2. Many families are struggling with their financial obligations due to rising living costs.
3. She decided to pursue a degree in financial management to enhance her career prospects.
4. His financial advice helped me save a considerable amount for my future.
5. The organization's financial stability was threatened by unexpected market fluctuations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/financial>