FINCHED

Meaning: 'Finched' refers to the act of pecking or feeding, often associated with birds, or experiencing a sensation of being lightly touched or affected by something, such as joy or laughter.

1. The bird finched at the feeder, pecking at the seeds scattered on the ground.
2. As he watched the children play, he couldn't help but feel finched by their laughter.
3. She finched her eyebrows in confusion as she read the unusual instructions.
4. The sudden noise made him finch, startled by the unexpected interruption.
5. Despite the harsh criticism, she refused to finch and stood by her decision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/finched