

FINGERLING

Meaning: Fingerling: a young fish, especially a small one that is not yet fully grown, often used in aquaculture or for stocking bodies of water.

1. The farmer introduced a new batch of fingerling trout into the pond for better growth.
2. She carefully selected the best fingerlings to enhance her aquarium's biodiversity.
3. After a few weeks, the fingerlings began to show significant signs of growth and health.
4. Fishermen often seek fingerlings in the spring to stock local lakes and rivers.
5. The aquaculture industry relies heavily on fingerlings for sustainable fish farming practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fingerling>