

FINLIKE

Meaning: Finlike: resembling or having the characteristics of a fin, often used to describe structures or forms that are elongated and tapering, similar to the shape or function of a fish's fin.

1. The fish displayed a remarkable finlike structure that helped it navigate through the coral reefs.
2. Her hair fell in finlike strands, reminiscent of flowing water as she danced.
3. The design of the building featured finlike extensions that gave it an aerodynamic appearance.
4. During the dive, the diver noticed a finlike creature gliding gracefully through the depths.
5. The artist used finlike shapes in her sculpture to evoke a sense of movement and fluidity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/finlike>