

FINNED

Meaning: Finned (verb): to move or swim in water using fins, often characterized by graceful or agile movements.

1. The fish effortlessly glided through the water, its sides glinting as it finned gracefully.
2. As the boat cut through the waves, the dolphin finned alongside, leaping joyfully in the sun.
3. He watched in awe as the shark finned just below the surface, a powerful reminder of nature's majesty.
4. In the aquarium, the colorful tropical fish finned through the coral, adding vibrancy to the scene.
5. She marveled at how the swimmer finned with precision, slicing through the pool like a seasoned athlete.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/finned>