

FIREBACK

Meaning: A fireback is a cast-iron or metal plate placed at the back of a fireplace to reflect heat into the room and protect the masonry.

1. The fireback in the old fireplace was beautifully adorned with intricate designs.
2. During the winter months, the fireback helped radiate heat throughout the room.
3. The antique shop had a stunning fireback that caught the eye of every visitor.
4. He polished the fireback until it gleamed, making it the centerpiece of the hearth.
5. The fireback not only served a practical purpose but also added charm to the rustic decor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fireback>