

FIREBRAND

Meaning: A firebrand is a person who passionately promotes a particular cause or advocates for change, often inciting strong emotions and controversy.

1. The young activist was a firebrand, rallying people to fight for social justice.
2. His firebrand personality often led him to clash with more conservative members of the committee.
3. As a firebrand in the literary world, she challenged conventional norms with her bold writing.
4. The politician's firebrand speeches ignited a passion for change among the youth.
5. Known for her firebrand approach, she inspired others to speak out against injustice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/firebrand>