

FIREPROOFING

Meaning: Fireproofing is the process of applying materials or treatments to structures or components to enhance their resistance to fire and high temperatures.

1. Fireproofing is essential in commercial buildings to ensure safety during unexpected emergencies.
2. The construction team applied fireproofing materials to the steel beams to enhance their resistance to high temperatures.
3. In high-rise apartments, effective fireproofing can significantly reduce the risk of fire spreading between floors.
4. Investors are increasingly considering the fireproofing standards of a property before making purchasing decisions.
5. Innovations in fireproofing technology are helping to create more sustainable and safer building designs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fireproofing>