

FIRRING

Meaning: FIRRING: A system of thin strips or boards used in construction to create a level surface or to provide ventilation in structures such as roofs.

1. The firring in the roof structure provides essential ventilation for the attic space.
2. Using firring strips can help to create a level surface for installing siding.
3. The contractor suggested adding firring to improve the drainage on the flat roof.
4. She noticed the firring was slightly warped, which could affect the overall stability.
5. After applying the firring, the builder was pleased with the improved insulation performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/firring>