

FIRSTLING

Meaning: Firstling: the first offspring born to an animal, particularly in the context of livestock or a flock.

1. The farmer eagerly awaited the firstling of his prized sheep.
2. In ancient cultures, the firstling of a flock was often offered as a sacrifice.
3. The firstling of the new season brought a sense of hope and renewal to the village.
4. She cherished the firstling of her garden, a beautiful bloom that stood out among the rest.
5. Legends spoke of a mythical firstling that would bring prosperity to those who found it.
6. The farmer celebrated the birth of the firstling, a sign of a prosperous season ahead.
7. In ancient cultures, the firstling of a flock was often offered as a sacrifice to the gods.
8. She felt a deep connection to her firstling, the first child she had ever given birth to.
9. The artist captured the essence of the firstling in a delicate sculpture made of clay.
10. Legends spoke of a mythical creature known as the firstling, said to bring good fortune to those who encountered it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/firstling>