

FISCAL

Meaning: Fiscal refers to anything related to government revenue, expenditures, and financial management, particularly in the context of economic policy and budgeting.

1. The government announced new fiscal policies to stimulate economic growth.
2. She is studying fiscal responsibility as part of her economics degree.
3. Fiscal deficits can lead to significant long-term consequences for a country's economy.
4. Investors are closely monitoring the fiscal health of the corporation before making decisions.
5. The committee reviewed the fiscal year's budget in detail to identify potential savings.
6. The government's fiscal policies are aimed at stimulating economic growth.
7. She carefully monitored her fiscal responsibilities to avoid excessive debt.
8. During the meeting, the accountant presented a detailed fiscal report for the last quarter.
9. The town's fiscal health has improved significantly since the new budget was implemented.
10. Investors are closely watching the fiscal decisions made by the central bank.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fiscal>