

FISH-BLOCK

Meaning: Fish-block: A device or structure designed to hold or support fish, enhancing water circulation in aquaculture or securely storing catches during fishing activities.

1. The innovative design of the fish-block allows for better water circulation in aquaculture systems.
2. During the fishing tournament, competitors used a specialized fish-block to hold their catches securely.
3. Engineers developed a new type of fish-block that minimizes stress on the captured fish before release.
4. The fish-block proved essential in maintaining the health of the marine life during transportation.
5. Her research focused on how different materials affect the effectiveness of fish-blocks in sustainable fishing practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fish-block>