

FISHHOOK

Meaning: A fishhook is a small, pointed device used for catching fish, typically featuring a sharp barb to secure the fish once hooked.

1. The fisherman carefully inspected his gear, ensuring that the fishhook was sharp and ready for use.
2. While navigating the rocky shoreline, she felt a sudden sting from a hidden fishhook embedded in her foot.
3. He demonstrated how to properly attach a fishhook to the line, emphasizing the importance of a secure knot.
4. In order to catch the elusive trout, she opted for a brightly colored fishhook that was known to attract attention.
5. The old tackle box was filled with various sizes of fishhooks, each one telling a story of past fishing adventures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fishhook>